Hi [First Name],

It takes a special type of leader to break the traditional education mold. At Hult, we believe that experience speaks volumes—in business, in learning, and in life. Your future professors are industry professionals who have been there, done it, and are out there still doing it. And best of all? They want to tell you about it. Press play to meet three Hult leaders and get their take on teaching for the 21st century.

Teaching at Hult is no ordinary profession—but Hult is no ordinary school. Learn more about the Hult classroom that's challenging how it's done and see just how extraordinary you can be.

Best,
Junior EA Sig
