

Your Hard Work in the IB Program Sets You Apart

As an international baccalaureate (IB) student, you've got the qualities that we look for at Hult—multi-cultural, open-minded, and fearless. Best of all, you've got that global mindset which gives Hult that international vibe that our students love so much. With all that experience and talent that you'll bring to Hult, you deserve to be rewarded.

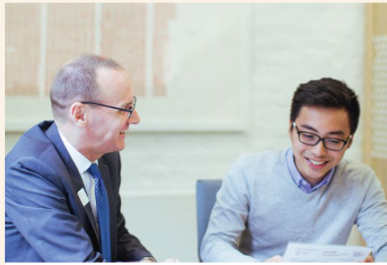

01 Benefits

How we reward you as an IB graduate

Transferable credits

Students who graduate from the IB program will receive 30 credits toward Hult's undergraduate degree. That means not only will you graduate in three years instead of four, you will also save a full year on the cost of tuition.

Personalized support

Your past, present and future are unique—that's why your Hult journey will be tailored to you. When you apply to Hult, you'll have your own dedicated enrollment advisor that will help you every step of the way.

SAT-optional admissions process

Your potential is so much more than a number, that's why at Hult, we offer an SAT test-optional admissions process. We believe that every candidate has more to offer than a test score.

02 Global

Love that international vibe?

So do we. That's why at Hult you'll feel like you're studying across the world in one classroom. Every project you'll work on has a team that's handpicked for maximum diversity—different nationalities, different languages, different perspectives—but one common goal. That's your day-to-day reality here at Hult.

137 nationalities represented in 2019 student body

108 languages spoken

56% of students work abroad after graduation

5 Hult campuses worldwide
Study in Boston, London, San Francisco, Dubai, and Shanghai

03 Skill-up

Get the skills to be whatever you dream

What do you want to be when you graduate? Your own boss? A fashion marketer? A number-cruncher at a world-class bank? Whatever it is you need core business skills, knowledge and experience. That's where we come in.

Get to know yourself better

Our unique program collaborative learning approach helps you figure out what your strengths and weaknesses are and how you can improve on both. So when you graduate, you'll leave stronger, bolder, and more capable.

Welcome to the real world

We believe that to be good at business, you need to do it, not just study it. So expect to work creatively with your classmates to solve real-world business problems and take on challenges that give you a practical skillset.

Boss it

Learn from passionate professors with industry experience to gain the core skills and fearless mindset of an entrepreneur. So you can be the graduate that every employer wants to hire or the boss of your own business.
